SHARED OWNERSHIP...

This style of ownership is a fabulous idea, especially for those of us who are time poor and are not quite ready to sail off into the sunset (for an extended time anyway!).

The Lightwave range of cruising catamarans presents a great lifestyle investment with a proven record for high re-sale value, resulting from its winning formula of combining head turning appeal, award winning style and quality, and precise, responsive performance.

We currently have clients eager to share the ownership of Lightwave vessels and are offering the service of co-ordinating parties together to collectively buy a new catamaran.

Self-Managed Syndicate ownership is a truly unique approach, and literally saves you thousands. Current co-owners of Lightwave syndicate yachts believe that they care for their own boat far greater than a managing syndicate Company would, because it is just that - their own boat. A pre-determined Co-Ownership Agreement & Structure sets out the terms and conditions of the shared ownership.

"A surprising benefit is that you can plan your life around your allocated time, and not be stressing that Nomad is berthed and not being used when you are busy, costing you dead money" GEOFF, 1/8th co-owner LW38 NOMAD

"It will be great to share the catamaran experience with others who have a sense of adventure and the experience to make it happen" BRUCE, 1/6th owner LW45 BLUE SPIRIT

"We are also lucky to be a part of a great syndicate made up of 8 families. We work all rules and agreements out together and highly recommend to anyone thinking about buying into a syndicate to GO FOR IT" SHARIE, 1/8th owner LW38 NOMAD

Lightwave shared ownership opportunities currently include a variety of fractions for a variety of Lightwave models, in a variety of locations including:

LW38 Sailing Catamaran, Moreton Bay QLD
1/8th share for $80K***

LW45G long distance cruiser, Australia wide & International destinations
